Dear Ms. Fletcher, Rebecca

On behalf of the Sue and Leonard Miller Center for Contemporary Judaic Studies, I would like to express our sincere appreciation for your informative, touching and very entertaining presentation titled "Laughter as Resistance: Performance during the Holocaust".

Your lecture was comprehensive and thought provoking, and your performance of songs from that era gave the program a special, added dimension. It was a unique means to gain deeper insights into yet another sad aspect of the Jewish experience throughout the various phases of the Shoah.

We were pleased to host you during your visit, and to provide you with an academic forum to share your extensive knowledge of this subject with our community.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Haim Shaked
Professor and Director
